7.2 Any student attending our courses must be studying Irish as part of their secondary education or otherwise meet our language proficiency requirements.

7.3 A deposit of €250 is required to secure your booking for a course. A booking is confirmed once we receive the required deposit and you have received a booking confirmation email with a course reference number.

7.4 The balance must be paid at least 2 months before the course start date. If the balance is not received in this time, your booking is automatically cancelled and your agreement with us is terminated.

7.5 Payment of the balance due can be made online through your account, by way of electronic funds transfer (using the narrative provided in your booking confirmation email), or by telephone by calling our Administration team using the details below.

7.6 Once you become a registered user of uisce.ie, you will be able to login to your account to see the status of your booking at any time. Please check the details of your booking carefully. If any details are incorrect or change, please contact our Administration team using the details below.

7.7 If a student has any specific needs such as a disability, restriction of movement, or medical or learning needs, you must tell us about this in advance so we can make any reasonable adjustments necessary for the student to attend the course. You must tell us if a student should not participate in any or certain water sports or other activities so we can make alternative arrangements for the student during the time scheduled for these activities.

7.8 We may end the agreement at any time by notifying you by post or email if you do not:

PART C – GENERAL TERMS

15 LIABILITY

- 15.1 We are responsible to you for foreseeable loss and damage caused by us. Subject to clause 15.6 below, if we fail to comply with these Terms, we are responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is a foreseeable result of our breaking these Terms or our failing to use reasonable care and skill. Loss or damage is foreseeable if either it is obvious that it will happen or if, at the time you accepted these Terms, both we and you knew it might happen. We are not responsible for loss or damage you suffer that is not foreseeable.
- 15.2 We do not exclude or limit in any way our liability to you where it would be unlawful to do so. This includes liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence or the negligence of our employees, agents or subcontractors or for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation. If you are a consumer, you have certain rights that cannot be excluded by contract and these Terms do not limit or affect any of those rights.
- 15.3 Without affecting clause 15.2, if we cannot meet any of our obligations under the Terms, or are delayed in meeting them, because of:
 - 15.3.1 something you have done or failed to do;

- 15.3.2 something you have failed to tell us; or
- 15.3.3 you not meeting any of your obligations under the Terms;
- we will not be liable for any losses you suffer as a result.
- 15.4 We will hold you responsible for any damage to the accommodation, facilities or equipment, except for reasonable wear and tear that can be expected.
- 15.5 We are not responsible and we do not accept any liability for any loss or damage to student's personal property unless this loss or damage was caused by our deliberate action or negligence.
- 15.6 To the extent allowed by applicable law, the total aggregate liability of us to you and any student (whether in contract, tort (including negligence) or for any other reason) for all losses, damages and claims arising out of or in connection with:
- 15.6.1 Part B and (only to the extent they apply to a course booking) Part C of these Terms or a student's attendance on the course will not exceed the amount paid by you in relation to the course;
- 15.6.2 Part A and (to the extent applicable to your use of the website) Part C of these Terms shall not exceed €50.

- 16.2 Your booking is personal to you. You cannot transfer your booking to another person or for the benefit of another student.
- 16.3 Each of the sections of these Terms operates separately. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful, the remaining sections will remain in full force and effect.
- 16.4 Any failure by us to exercise or any delay by us in exercising a right or remedy does not constitute a waiver of that right or remedy or of any other rights or remedies. A waiver by us of any breach of, or any default under, any provision of the Terms is not a general waiver or a waiver of any subsequent default or breach and in no way affects the other terms of the Terms.
- 16.5 We may transfer our rights and obligations under these Terms to another organisation. You may only transfer your rights or your obligations under these Terms to another person if we agree to this in writing. We will always inform you if this happens and we will ensure that the transfer will not affect your rights under these Terms. If you are unhappy with the transfer, you may cancel your booking in accordance with these Terms.
- 16.6 If we do not insist immediately that you do anything you are required to do under these Terms, or if we delay in taking steps against you in respect of your breaking this contract, that will not mean that you do not have to do those things and it will not prevent us taking steps against you at a later date.

16.7 The existence, formation, interpretation, operation and termination of these Terms and any matters or disputes arising out of or in connection with them (whether contractual or non-contractual), are governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of Ireland.
